“As a player, I wish I’d had a book like this growing up. It shows you there are loads of exciting ways to be part of sport, on and off the pitch.”

Brennan Camp

“The book is a nice read and one you should pick up!”

Louie Annesley

“A great and fun wildlife book. I learnt so much and couldn’t stop guessing who’d win next!”

Libby Stratton

“It was so good learning about all the stats and facts of the English and Scottish clubs. I especially loved the quiz at the end of test my knowledge.”

Steph Mann

“I have a background in construction, so I really enjoyed learning more about the history and science behind different buildings.”

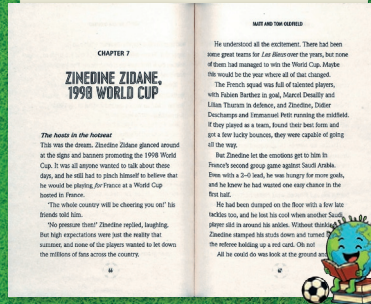

Imogen Cochrane

“This book was really inspiring. I didn’t realise that Usain Bolt was born with a curve in his spine and that people thought his height would stop him from becoming a great runner.”

Helen Ogle

“The 2026 World Cup is coming up, so it was great learning about the new tournament structure. With 48 teams playing, it’s going to be a very exciting tournament!”

Molly Childerhouse

“I have just been travelling, so it was great reading this book before I left and learning more about the places I was visiting.”

George Francomb

“I love how this book shows kids that stories can travel the world just like elite athletes do. Curiosity can take you anywhere.”

“I learnt a lot about classical music that I didn’t know before.”

Dennon Lewis

“This book has a lot of cool recipes from around the world.”

Jimmy Muitt

“I enjoyed this book because it shows how many sports and activities there are in the world.”

Niall McManus

“This book is full of sporting history and facts. Did you know Team GB have won 79 medals in Olympic cycling so far!”

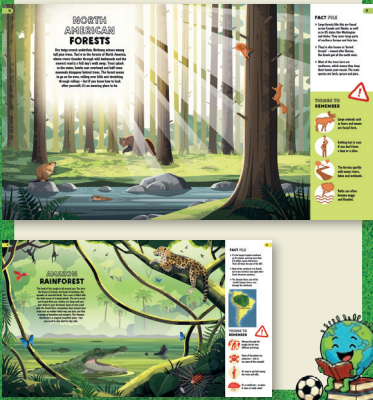

Dan Pybus

“This book is a good reminder that games are a great way to make friends.”

Jake Lawrence

“Really cool book and teaches you a lot about survival.”

Charlie Carter

“This book gives you an up close look at loads of different foods from all around the world.”

Abby Delves

“As an Arsenal fan, I loved learning all about Declan Rice’s game plan for success.”

Harry Pinchard

“I really enjoyed learning about different cities that I haven’t visited yet.”

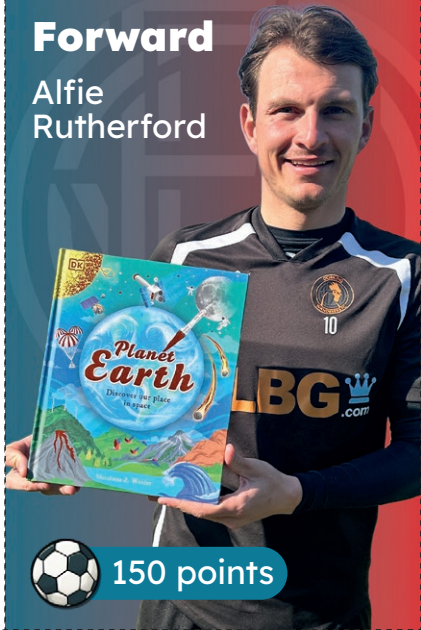

Ellen Terry

“I learnt so many interesting facts about football around the world. I couldn’t believe that in Ireland they even have tractor football matches with teams of tractors and a giant football.”

“This book was a great read and taught me loads of interesting facts about some of my favourite players. I didn’t know Messi played his first World Cup match when he was still a teenager.”

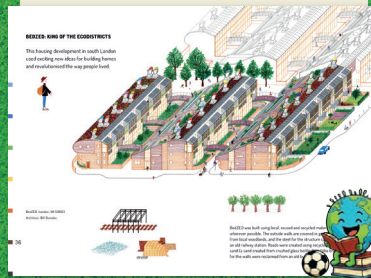

Lily Price

“This was such an inspiring book. I learnt about lots of trailblazers in the football industry who are helping to create a better future.”

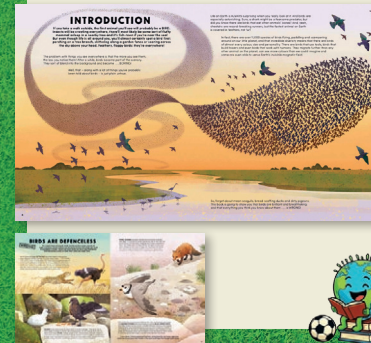

Jasmine Smith

“This book was really interesting! I loved learning about flying cars, I didn’t realise they already exist. They might not be on our roads yet, but maybe they will be one day!”

Jason Prior

“This book shows you the weird and brilliant things birds can really do. You will have a great time discovering the truth.”

Alfie Rutherford

“You will love reading this book and learning about our planet.”

Sarah Wentworth

“I loved learning about recipes from different countries and I can’t wait to try making the mochi recipe myself.”
